Mary Talaga – Our beloved school crossing guard

Mary Talaga retired Jan. 18 after serving 57 years as an elementary school crossing guard at the corner of East Huron River Drive and Edgemont.

She's helped thousands of children cross the street safely, and their children, and their children. She's had many close calls with inattentive drivers. A lot are looking at cell phones while driving these days.

Mary's husband Tony was Belleville fire chief and head of the city's DPW. Mary has always been in the midst of city activity. After Tony died, Mary continued with her crossing guard work. She still works as a lunch lady to help the children in the Edgemont Elementary School cafeteria.

She is close friends with members of the police and fire departments and officers from both departments come to her home to help with her flagpole or other needs.

Gary Bubar from AAA was present at Monday's city council meeting to present some gifts. He said the AAA's highest award pins are for "more than 25 years," so she got another one of those. Gary knew Mary was getting a plaque from the city, so he asked her daughter what gift she could really use and came up with a $100 gift card. That's what made Mary smile the brightest.

The public is invited to Saturday's 1-4 p.m. retirement party for Mary at Trinity Episcopal Church. You're sure to get a hug from Mary when you attend.

EXTRA THINGS I KNOW

...By Rosemary K. Otzman

At Monday's meeting of the Belleville City Council, the council members thanked the employees and administration at city hall for being on hand during the work week, even with bitterly cold temperatures.

City Manager Diana Kollmeyer said Belleville stayed open, when neighboring communities closed up because it was too cold. She said Rick Rutherford had the DPW workers work inside the DPW building instead of outside when possible. Also, there was some troubles with the boiler and Police Chief Hal Berriman's office was 53 degrees and the treasurer's office 50 degrees. The temperature at Monday's meeting was very warm, so they got the boiler working right.

Kollmeyer said it has been the city's policy to keep city hall open since that's where people go when there is a crisis.

As you recall, the school district and Sumpter and Van Buren township halls were closed because of the cold temperatures several days last week.

There was a warming center set up in Sumpter, during the daytime hours, 8 a.m. to 5 p.m., and VBT set up a round-the-clock warming center, but you had to enter at the police department and be escorted by a police officer to the warming center area at the other end of the building. The City of Belleville didn't have a warming center and council members asked the administration to look into some kind of shared facility, like last year at the high school, that could be counted on.

We've been informed that Mike, who ran Mike's Red Apple in Belleville for many years, has died. The restaurant is now called Sam's Place and diners report that a wake for Mike was held there last week. Many of us have fond memories of Mike and his family. We don't have any of the details or an obituary.

Belleville attorney Barbara Miller, who is working to restart the Missoula Children's Theatre here, reports a committee is meeting each Friday in her office.

She got permission from the Sumpter Township Board of Trustees to use the community center May 13-18 for the performance of "The Pied Piper" with a local cast of about 60-70 children.

The committee is made up of Peggy Morgan, Sheena Barnes, Elaine Gutierrez, Mendie Russell, Mary Herring, and new member, Karetha Hannibal, who represents the Sumpter Civic League.

At Monday's city council meeting, a woman resident in the audience said she was told by the city's garbage hauler, Republic Waste, that she could put just one big item out per week and nothing with a motor. She said they told her if she put out a TV, they would charge her $70 to pick it up. She asked the council what she should do with her extra items. Councilman Tom Fielder pulled out an Independent and said there was an advertisement that offered to pick up metals items and scrap metal without charge. He handed the Independent to the woman and she was very pleased. I thanked Tom for promoting the Independent.

I've been advised that work is under way on the new Sumpter Township board table. The building the township furnished for the project that is being used by the carpenter is just north of the hexagon building. (The hexagon structure is destined to be converted into a library media center.)

The carpenter who got the contract for the project also recently got some insurance, which he didn't have when the contract was approved by the township. Those township residents watching the project were astounded there was no insurance. Now, there is.

A news item posted on the Huron Township Police web site Monday announced it was adding its third female police officer with the hiring of new full-time officer Crystal Niewiadomski. She joins another full-time female officer, Detective Kari Schneider. The third female officer is part-time officer Krissy Faull, it said.

Belleville Police Chief Hal Berriman said his Cpl. Kris Faull doesn't work for Huron very often. He said it was something like eight hours total last year.

What has happened to our country?

To the editor:

What has happened to our country? The governor of Virginia, a doctor, described in great detail how the proposed abortion bill would work. After the baby was born and made comfortable, the mother and doctor would decide what to do.

Polite media use the word infanticide for the next step. I'm not so polite. I call it murder. All in favor put your hands up and your heads down in shame. This law did not pass.

Lions district receives $20,000 grant for DAD

To the editor:

Lions Club District 11-A1, which covers 35 Lions clubs in Wayne and Monroe counties, received a grant for $20,000 to promote our DAD Project (Defense Against Diabetes).

We plan to help reduce and prevent diabetes with education to Lions and our residents. Education CAN prevent complications including blindness, retinopathy, heart diseases, kidney disease, lower limb amputations and others that add significant personal and economic burden to our residents and to our nation's health care costs.

Also, the Belleville Area Lions Club on Tuesday, Feb. 19 at 6 p.m., at Wayne County Community College on Haggerty Road, will be presenting information on pediatric cancer. We have a local family and Wendy Marcele will tell of her family's experience.

Independent wins four awards in Michigan Press Association contest

The awards in the 2018 Michigan Press Association Better Newspaper Contest were released late last Thursday.

The Belleville-Area Independent received four awards in the Class C category, which is for weekly papers with circulation between 3,001 and 7,000.

The entries were judged by members of the New York Press Association, who reviewed 3,065 entries submitted by 99 Michigan newspapers and individual members this year.

Better Newspaper of the Year contest chairman David Green said there were more than 100 more entries than the previous year and participation in the college division was strong with 765 entries.

Green said since those in Michigan obviously submitted their entries because they thought those entries were worthy of prizes, "... now you can see if someone in New York agrees... Congratulations to the winners and don't stop creating exemplary work."

The Independent's awards were all written by Editor Rosemary K. Oztman. They are:

• Third Place in News Enterprise Reporting - "VB School Board settles lawsuits with 4 Savage teachers." The judge wrote: "What is happening in our schools is such an important story, and listening to residents when they don't feel something is right is where some of the best reporting comes from. This was a great story about a superintendent who wasn't being fair, and the reporter really got to the bottom of that."

• Third Place in Spot News Story - "Belleville Fire Fighters sue city, mayor, clerk." The judge wrote: "Great job by the writer to keep everything well organized and easy to read. There is a lot going on in this story and sometimes it's easy to get lost in all the back and forth. This writer didn't."

• Third Place in Feature Story - "Retired Chief Gene Taylor saves teen from getting hit by train." The judge made no comments on this story.

• Honorable Mention in Government / Education News - "Van Buren Township Trustee arraigned for shoplifting." The judge wrote: "What might have been a mere local-court proceeding story became much more with the revelation that the person being arraigned was a local government official - apparently one with a history of prior allegations against her. Although the story is relatively short, it reflects diligent digging through use of FOI requests, mentions details from state law, and includes comments from the township supervisor, in addition to the court developments. But it lacks some key details of the past allegations. The story states that 'this is the third time' the individual 'has been detained for shoplifting,' according to police reports. However, it only goes on to relate a May 25, 2009, incident, apparently during which a store manager told the woman that she had attempted to steal on another, earlier occasion as well. A little more clarity on the chronology and exactly what happened in these one or two previous incidents would have been helpful."

Court Watching:

Police Officer Salajan charged with driving while 'super drunk'

By Rosemary K. Oztman
Independent Editor

Sumpter Township Police Officer George Gabriel Salajan, 29, has been charged with operating a motor vehicle with a bodily alcohol content of .17 or more, which is considered "super drunk" under state law.

Salajan was arrested by Huron Township Police on Jan. 27, according to records at the 34th District Court.

His case status is pending and he is scheduled for a pre-hearing before Judge David M. Parrott at 9 a.m. March 5.

The warrant for his arrest was signed by the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office on Jan. 30 and he was before Judge Parrott on Feb. 1.

According to the Michigan State Police website, conviction on the charge, first offense, has enhanced penalties, including up to a $700 fine, 180 days in jail, 360 hours of community service, up to one year license suspension, 6 points on a driver's license, mandatory completion of an alcohol treatment program, an ignition interlock use after 45 days license suspension to receive a restricted driver's license.

At the township's April 10, 2018 board meeting, Officer Salajan was honored as 2017 Sumpter Police Department's Officer of the Year. He also was honored, among others, with the 2017 Chief's Recognition award for his contribution to the outcome of the Nelson Po case.

Huron Public Safety Director threatens law suit over rumor

On Thursday afternoon, Huron Township Public Safety Director Everette Robbins called the Independent to say it was irresponsible for the Independent to print a rumor concerning his department in the Jan. 31 edition.

He was angry and said his officers were upset because they did everything by the book and the rumor made them look bad. He said if the Independent didn't publish a retraction, he would sue the editor personally.

Director Robbins was referring to the page 13 report about Huron Township police arresting a Sumpter Township police officer for drunk driving on Jan. 26.

After printing a statement by Sumpter Township Public Safety Director/Police Chief Eric Luke, the report said: "The Independent also had asked Chief Luke about the rumor that Huron officers offered to let the officer go and Luke insisted they follow through."

Chief Luke's reply was: "As to the claim about my response... That's false. The arrest had already been made by the time I was notified. If I had been presented with that scenario, however, I would have told those officers the same thing I tell my own. You have a job to do, do it. Don't jeopardize yourself trying to lessen the impact of someone else's poor decision."

Director Robbins said he doesn't care what Luke said. Robbins was still upset.

Robbins said he was the one who called Luke to inform him of the arrest.

ORPHAN OF THE WEEK "BELLA B"

Give it up for Bella B, who to our delight surprised us with a dramatic personality change we never saw coming. After being returned to the shelter, Bella B did not settle in well and only seemed to feel rotten. She refused to be loved on and hid behind a mask of fear with a growl, hiss or swipe ready if you got near. We had just about resigned to the fact that this senior kitty would be with us for good when changing her environment produced a miracle to our cheer. Bella B now resides in the Senior Cat room which is a calmer, low traffic room that makes her feel safe enough to be her true lap-loving, affectionate self. She now enjoys attention and will even climb up on a lap to cuddle and get some gentle pets when people pay her a visit. Bella B will need some time to adjust to any new home and definitely needs a tranquil environment to maintain her pleasant side but with some patience and understanding we have no doubt this special kitty will make a very rewarding furry friend. She's spayed, vaccinated, tested neg. for FeLuk/FIV and micro-chipped. Call Friends of Michigan Animals Rescue at 734-461-9458 or visit our website fmar1.org for more information.

City Council

the State of Michigan has been a crossing guard as long as she was since they started training guards in the 1960s.

Bubar presented her with a certificate, a pin, a $100 gift card, and a roadside assistance kit.

Members of the council also thanked Talaga for her service, with Councilman Jesse Marcotte calling Talaga a “true living legend and pillar of our community.”

Police Chief Hal Berriman said the police department appreciates all the work Talaga has done and they have another award for her in the works, so she will have to come back for that, too.

Chief Berriman said Talaga and her husband Tony were close friends of his from the time he first came on as police chief and then when he came back. He said Talaga has “always been a delight” to encounter.

“She is near and dear to the fire department,” said Fire Chief Brian Loranger. “Tony was chief when I joined the fire department. I’ve known her for over 30 years.”

Talaga was asked to point out her family in the audience and she did, naming them one by one. She also had her picture taken in the hall with the fire department officers present.

Another celebration of Talaga’s retirement will be held from 1 to 4 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 9, at Trinity Episcopal Church, 11575

Belleville Road. The public is invited and, Talaga said, “I hope you’ll all come.”

In other business at Monday’s meeting, the council:

- Set the annual citywide yard sale dates as Sept. 7 and 8. On these dates, residents do not need a permit to hold a sale;

- Heard a presentation on the FY 2017/18 audit by James Wilde, principal of Alan C. Young & Associates. He said the audit showed the city had “absolutely clean processes and procedures” and the auditors gave the city an “unmodified opinion,” which is the highest it can give. He said the city’s liabilities of $4.2 million for pensions and $2.5 million for health care don’t have to be paid now, but the council is challenged to look at this and form a long-term plan; and

- Approved accounts payable of $390,862.40 and the following purchases in excess of $500: to Blue Ribbon, $9,785 for sewer break and backup repair near 122 North Liberty and $2,070 for water tap repair on Liberty; to Glinda Goucher of Tecumseh, $3,375 for purchase of five grave plots at $675 each; and to Metro Environmental, $995 for vactor service for sewer cleanout at 122 N. Liberty.

VBT DDA adds more funding to Quirk Park Improvement Project

By Rosemary K. Oztman
Independent Editor

At its regular meeting on Jan. 22, the Van Buren Township Downtown Development Authority agreed to transfer another $180,000 from its fund balance for a splash pad and associated amenities for a splash pad at Quirk Park.

This makes a total of $480,000 earmarked for the splash pad.

The money will cover underground and above ground necessary improvements and associated amenities such as: fencing, gates, shade sails, benches, picnic tables, and landscaping.

In Lisa Lothringer's report to the DDA board, she explained: "This project started out as simply putting in a splash pad, but has grown to be a full overhaul of the north end of the park. Mr. Chuck Covington has committed to funding for a memorial seating area dedicated to his daughter, Egypt.

"Also, the township will be undertaking the following notable improvements in addition to covering the engineering costs associated with the project: installing additional walkways, adding accessible parking, erecting an additional pavilion, moving and reinstalling playground equipment, and installation of wayfinding signage.

Lothringer, who is Assistant DDA Director, said it is the intention of all involved with this project that it be completed as early in August 2019 as possible.

Placemaking Initiative

DDA Director Susan Ireland presented additional work proposals -- 05R -- for the Belleville Road Placemaking Initiative, with much discussion. She proposed rescinding AWP #3, $5,347.79, which was the elliptical window on the east elevation, and replace it with trapezoid windows which would allow for better load carry on the steel support for the stone, at a new cost of $1,320.

She also requested:

- $4,950 for a drain tile to be installed on the exterior of the office building;

- $9,511.65 to match the trim with the pillars including wood stain. Originally fiber cement boards were going to be used for the exterior beams on the front of the building, but she was not able to find a color that would complement the cedar beams on the front of the building;

- $2,203.98 to revise the front entrance door from an aluminum clad to a wood door to provide a more residential feel;

- $8,047.60 includes rescinding of AWP 3 and including it here in AWP 05R with a larger pump for durability (this was not approved);

- No additional cost -- All interior trim to be painted not stained;

- $660 to revise garage door from FRP (fiberglass reinforced polyester) to AMP (acrylic modified polyester).

Also, administrative fee of $3,409.98.

The motion passed was: "McNamara moved, Foster seconded to approve AWP No. 05R as well as administrative fees per the contract with the understanding that Item 4 will be adjusted to include an alternative to the solid wood door proposed and Item 5 is being excluded completely and authorize the transfer of funding from fund balance to the Belleville Road Placemaking Initiative."

Ireland said she has sent five easements for the project to Wayne County for recording. The easement providing cross access with Westlake Apartments will not be recorded until she has received verification of the accuracy of the legal description.

She said Mr. Rose at Westlake believes this will be a nice amenity for the DDA area and the residents of Westlake.

Ireland said contractors will continue to work throughout the winter months as weather permits. Foundations are in and retention/detention is under way.

2019 Tigers Yearbook

The DDA board also approved collaborating with the Belleville DDA on a full-page advertisement in the 2019 Detroit Tigers Yearbook at a cost of $5,125.

Lothringer said this publication is sold during each game as well as being available at major retailers in the six counties encompassing the Detroit Metro area. This will be an opportunity to reach people who are not familiar with all that VBT and Belleville have to offer. The Belleville DDA approved its participation at its Jan. 16 meeting.

Pedestrian Path

Director Ireland reported that the overpass and walkway for the pedestrian path on Belleville Road over I-94 is open.

She reported the logo sign was damaged on site and MDOT is requiring that the sign be completely reproduced and the contractor has been informed.
